

2022 NPB Season for History Maker Baseball

At first glance, you would be forgiven for thinking that the 2022 season was just a replay of the 2021 season. After all, the same 2 teams won the League Pennants and Climax Series (Tokyo Yakult Swallows & Orix Buffaloes) and both leagues had repeat MVP winners (Munetaka Murakami & Yoshinobu Yamamoto)!

Digging even a little deeper, there were many new plotlines and moments that will forever make the 2022 season unique. For the very first time, the Pacific League ended with 2 teams with the exact same record! The Orix Buffaloes and Fukuoka SoftBank Hawks both went 76-65-2, however Orix won the season series 15-10 and we awarded the Pacific League Pennant. Roki Sasaki of the Chiba Lotte Marines had, in my opinion, the greatest 17 consecutive innings of pitching ever: throwing a perfect game while striking out 19 and following that up with 8 perfect innings in his next start before being pulled in a 0-0 game. The aforementioned Murakami winning the Triple Crown, and in the process setting a record for home runs in a season by a Japanese player (and 2nd most in NPB history). Finally, the season ended with a team named the “Buffaloes” winning the Nippon Series for the very first time, and the franchise’s first Nippon Series title since some guy named Ichiro played for them!

As always, acknowledgments to 2689web.com, 1point02.jp & ranzankeikoku.blog.fc2.com for the various stats needed to produce the set, as well as Al Wilson and Travis Jansen for the HMB card templates that I use to produce the cards themselves!
