

2021 LPGA

Overview

The 2021 season was one of the most dynamic in the history of the Ladies Professional Golf Association. Thirty events were held in the 2021 season. In addition to the customary 5 majors, the biennial Solheim Cup, and the 2020 Summer Olympic Games, were also contested during this spectacular season.

Per-event prize money was the highest ever averaging over $2.3M per event, including the season-ending $5M CME Group Tour Championship with a winner's share of $1.5M. The LPGA held events in major venues used on the PGA and European Tours. The US Women's Open was held at the Olympic Club in San Francisco, home of 5 PGA US Opens and 2 PGA Tour Championships. The AIG Women's British Open was held at the Carnoustie Golf Links in Scotland which has hosted 8 Open Championships, the most recent being in 2018. The Solheim Cup, the Ladies version of the Ryder cup, was held at the Inverness Country Club in Toledo, OH, which has hosted 4 US Opens and 2 PGA Championships.

Major Events

There are five major events on the LPGA tour:

1. ANA Inspiration.

The ANA Inspiration, originally known as the Colgate-Dinah Shore Winners Circle, was played at the Mission Hills Country Club in Rancho Mirage, CA. It was won by Patty Tavatanakit, a rookie, by two strokes over Lydia Ko.

2. U.S. Women's Open

The 76th U.S. Women's Open was played at the Olympic Club in San Francisco, CA. It was won by Yuka Saso, who bested Nasa Hataoka in a 3-hole playoff. It was Yuka's first major win. Lexi Thompson held a 5 stroke lead on the 11th tee on Sunday afternoon, but unfortunately missed the playoffs by one stroke after bogeying the last two holes.

3. KPMG Women's PGA Championship

The KPMG Women's' PGA Championship was played at the Atlanta Athletic Club in John's Creek, GA. It was won by Nelly Korda by three strokes over Lizette Salas. Nelly became the third 1st-time major winner with this victory.

4. Evian Championship

5. AIG Women's Open

The AIG Women's Open (British Championship) was played at the Carnoustie Golf Links in Carnoustie, Scotland. The tournament was won by Anna Nordqvist by one stroke over Georgia Hall, Madelene Sagstrom, and Lizette Salas. This was Anna's 3rd major championship.

A. Solheim Cup

Saturday and Sunday morning has four alternate shot matches. Saturday and Sunday afternoon has four better ball matches. Monday is 12 head-to-head Singles matches. Matches are a maximum of 18 holes. If the score is even after 18 holes, both teams get ½ point. There are 28 points possible. 14 ½ points are needed to win the Solheim Cup, while the defending champion needs only 14 points to retain the cup.
